

Life is Short

V1.

Time-killer games.

Time-killer movies.

What is their value?

What are we doing?

Are we just stuck

In a lazy memento?

Maybe we hide

From the world going mental...

Chorus.

Life is short,

Too short to hide away.

Minutes pass; look back

They're frozen, static.

Listen to what wise men

Have to say:

Make every minute count.

Dream big but be pragmatic.

V2.

Time-waster games.

Time-waster movies.

Were they designed

To keep us from moving,

Keep our thoughts still,

Keep our time running?

Running away

Until....?

Chorus.

Life is short,

Too short to hide away.

Minutes pass; look back

They're frozen, static.

Listen to what wise men

Have to say:

Make every minute count.

Dream big, but be pragmatic.
